I loved him

Chapter 1 by PigletPinkPancake

It felt like everything was just a dream. And maybe it was. If it was, then I didn't want to find out.

Everything moved so fast. The cars. The streets. The lights. The music. Even him. And now he's gone. But why? What had I done that made him leave? I loved him! And he loves me. But this wasn't right. Why did he leave me? What had I done? These thoughts ran through my head, like traffic on the free way. I had spent so many nights out on the town with him and he just threw it all away!

I rolled over in my bed, trying to find which part is the comfiest. Then the door bell rang. Since I was the only one home, I had to get it. My feet cold on the floor, my hair tied in a knot. I didn't look very a pleasing. I swung open the door to find him standing there, tears running down his face.

"Whitney?" he said, wiping the tears away.

"Come in." I say back.
